St. John Bosco Braves (4-1) at Santa Margarita Catholic Eagles (4-1)

Saddleback College (Mission Viejo, California)

Friday, September 29, 2023 • 7:00 p.m.

RECAP OF LAST GAME VS. LEUZINGER

John Gazzaniga threw for 151 yards on 10-of-17 (58.8%) passing and two touchdowns for Santa Margarita Catholic as they rolled to a 42-7 win over Leuzinger (Lawndale) the last time out, two weeks ago Friday at Saddleback College. It was the final nonleague contest for the Eagles who finished that portion of the schedule with a 4-1 mark and now head into rugged Trinity League action.

Trent Mosley led the SMC offensive attack once again. The elusive sophomore caught six passes for 94 yards (15.7 average) and a touchdown. He also rushed for one. Gazzaniga and Skylar Lendsey added rushing touchdowns, while freshman Elijah "Eli" Robinson caught a 38-yard touchdown reception, the first of his varsity career.

Mosley' added a rushing touchdown as well to give him 16 total scores for the season. Dating back to the final three games of last season, Mosley now has scored at least one touchdown in eight-consecutive games. The SMC record for most consecutive games with a touchdown scored is an amazing 17 games, held by John Ireland in the 1989-90 seasons. The most for a single season is 28, shared by Bryant Wolfsberger (1997) and Ryan Wolpin (2011).

The SMC defense was feisty. Noah Sulick, a real dynamo, had perhaps his best game as an Eagle as he led the club with nine tackles. Gage Burnett registered seven tackles. Sophomore defensive back Logan Hirou notched his fourth interception of the season and reached the end zone (31 yards) for the second time. Sulick and linebacker LeVar Talley each forced fumbles.

Kicker Ryan Gass was perfect on PAT conversion tries, 6-for-6 and is now 16-for-17 (94.1%) for the season.

Defending National Champion St. John Bosco Upset by Kahuku, 30-23 As Trinity League Play to Begin

Hawaii football team stuns national Braves in wild finish

Laie, Hawaii — One of the landmark prep football victories in Hawaii history began with some deep self-reflection. Kahuku was routed to the tune of 55-8 at national No. 1 Mater Dei at the Santa Ana Bowl on September 9, the most lopsided defeat in the proud program's history. The Red Raiders were left to rue a slew of errors that caused them to repeatedly give the ball to an opponent that didn't need the help.

Yellow flags flew throughout the emotionally charged contest, but especially in the final minutes, when the Red Raiders were aided by two 15-yard Bosco penalties on a 10-play, 70-yard drive that was capped with Tagovailoa-Amosa's 18-yard keeper up the middle with 0:23 seconds to play. It included a pass interference call on fourth-and-10 from the Kahuku 30 that prevented the game from ending in Bosco's column.

Kahuku had jumped out to a 22-3 lead in the first half but Bosco answered by scoring the next 20 points to take a 23-22 lead with just over eight minutes left. The Hawaii program got the ball back with two minutes remaining and benefited from a pass interference to keep the drive alive and set up the Tagovailoa-Amosa score.

There was more consternation at the finish, when Braves quarterback Caleb Sanchez threw a slant pass over the middle to Daniel Odom. As soon as the receiver caught it, linebacker Malaki Soliai-Tui drilled him with enough force to make his helmet pop off as time expired. It was a violent collision, but upon replay it appeared to be a legal body tackle. The officiating crew tossed a flag, but as that happened a Bosco staff member angrily tried to confront another official and a second flag was tossed. The officials conferred on the field and a moment later called the game over. Bosco players and coaches eventually came over to shake hands with Kahuku while the Red Raider bleachers rumbled and fireworks popped.

It was a difficult defeat to swallow for a proud program like Bosco (4-1), which hadn't lost to an out-of-state opponent since it met St. Thomas Aquinas (Ft. Lauderdale, Florida) to open the 2017 season. Bosco coach Jason Negro tried to balance his frustration with the officiating with pointing out his team's mistakes and extending credit to Kahuku. The Braves were assessed 15 penalties for 163 yards compared to Kahuku's 13 for 105.

  - Steve Chavez | Running Back | Junior (Transfer from Damien-La Verne)
  - William Taylor V | Running back | Sophomore (Transfer from Bellflower)

2023 In Brief:

As Orange Lutheran's football program took the field for the 2023 season, it has focused on building upon their success over the past two seasons under head coach Rod Sherman. The Lancers started the campaign with a No. 2 ranking in Orange County (OC Register) and a No. 10 ranking in the state (MaxPreps.com) as they set out to tackle the fifth-toughest game schedule in the country. Nonleague opponents included Serra (Gardena), De La Salle (Concord) and Sierra Canyon (Chatsworth), as well as the always tough Trinity League matchups. Out of the ten regular season games OLu scheduled this fall, eight teams were ranked in the national Top 100 to start 2023. Sherman looked at the challenging schedule as an opportunity for growth.

There is excitement surrounding the team's defensive linebackers, a core group of returners that includes All-County honorees junior Jireh Moe and sophomores Talanoa Ili and Auma Jennings and Wallace Filemu. An area where Sherman sees the most improvement is in the offensive line. Linebacker looks especially deep with the arrival of transfers Samuel Fonua from Mater Dei and Christian Panapa from Servite. The secondary will include emerging junior Benjamin Alefaio and Serra transfer Marcellous Ryan among others. First-Team All-League quarterback T.J. Lateef returns to lead the offense. The Lancers graduated their top three wide receivers but big tight end A.J. Ia is back as a prime target. Also keep an eye on transfer running backs Steve Chavez from Damien and William Taylor IV from Bellflower.

Homecoming 2023

Short History of Homecoming in the United States

Homecoming is a long-standing tradition at most universities, colleges and high schools throughout the United States. It usually includes activities for students and alumni, such as a sporting event, parade through the streets of the city or town and class reunions. Several different colleges take credit for initiating the concept of "Homecoming." The following five schools have the strongest claims to being the "first."

- Northern Illinois University (1903): The first alumni football game was played on October 10, 1903 and began NIU's homecoming tradition.
- Southwestern University (Texas) (1909): This college held their first homecoming on record on April 21, 1909 in San Gabriel Park. Former students raised funds, prepared and served a barbecue supper and decorated the town buildings.
- Baylor University (1909): In November, 1909 "Good Will Week" was born with a parade, reunion parties, concerts, a fromal dance and an afternoon football game. This all started a tradition that continues to this day. There was a gap between 1910 and 1915 when there was no homecoming event, however there has been continuity since 1915.
- University of Illinois (1910): Two Illini seniors began planning an event centered around the annual Illinois versus University of Chicago rivalry. For the previous seven years, Illinois had lost. The school hoped to reverse this losing streak by planning an event that bolstered school spirit. Support took hold among the student body, faculty and local businesses. It turned out to be an event bigger than anyone had anticipated and homecomings have been held on campus ever since.
- University of Missouri (1911): The Tigers faced rival Kansas University and the festivities centered on a parade and a football game during which alumni were encouraged to attend. Along with the football game and parade, the celebration included a spirit rally with a bonfire. Nearly 10,000 alumni "came home" to take part in the celebration.
